Our fully online training opportunities include:

Blackboard Training for Oncampus Faculty

A fully online, self-paced training course for on-campus instructors who want to use Blackboard to supplement their face-to-face courses.

Online Faculty Training Certification Program

A fully online, self-paced training course for faculty who teach online or are interested in teaching online. The course includes Distance Ed Guidelines, ACCJC/WASC requirements, retention strategies, copyright, accessibility, the tools and techniques for effective online teaching, and much more!

Both courses have had overwhelmingly positive responses from their participants- a total of over 400 faculty members from across the SDCCD!

Sign-up now on Faculty Flex Calendar!

More instructional technology workshops available on Flex:

- Blackboard Tools
- Screencasting & Video Production
- Online Pedagogy & Social Presence
- Blended Learning Strategies

Join our Steering Committee!

The Districtwide Distance Education Steering Committee is an advisory group composed of faculty, staff, and administrators from across the District that meets once a month. Email Kats Gustafson (kgustafs@sdccd.edu) if you're interested in becoming a member!
